

General Information
Academic subject	International Law
Degree course	Law
Curriculum
ECTS credits	9
Compulsory attendance	No
Language	Italian

Subject teacher	Name Surname	Mail address	SSD
	Ivan Ingravallo	ivan.ingravallo@uniba.it	IUS/13

ECTS credits details	Area		CFU/ETCS
Basic teaching activities	12		9

Class schedule
Period	I semester
Year	II
Type of class	Lectures

Time management
Hours	225
In-class study hours	72
Out-of-class study hours	153

Academic calendar
Class begins	Semptember 2020
Class ends	December 2020

Syllabus
Prerequisites/requirements	Basic knowledge of Constitutional Law and Private Law
Expected learning outcomes	The course aims to acquire knowledge of the main legal rules of the international community, as well as those relating to 'private' international law, also through the analysis of regulatory sources and jurisprudential cases, promoting development of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - knowledge and understanding, analysis, critical interpretation of sources and problem solving; - the ability of applied understanding of the knowledge acquired in concrete cases, also for the purpose of their use in carrying out work activities within international organizations; - autonomy of judgment and communication skills, as well as learning ability and capacities to continue learning.

Contents	'Public' International Law: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The subjects of international law (States, international organizations, other subjects) - The sources of international law (ius cogens, customs, treaties, etc.) and the adaptation of domestic law to international law - The content of international law (sovereignty and its limits, human rights, treatment of foreigners, international maritime law) - The UN collective security system - The responsibility of States for Internationally wrongful acts (elements and consequences) - The solution of international disputes (arbitration and diplomatic means) 'Private' International Law: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Basic elements: jurisdiction, applicable law, effects of foreign judgments - The system of sources: national, conventional, EU law - Jurisdiction and titles of jurisdiction - Applicable law and connection criteria - General questions of applicable law (qualification, renvoi, knowledge of foreign law, public order, necessary application rules, multi-legislative orders, preliminary questions) - Effects of foreign judgments. Requirements and methods of recognition and execution
Course program
Bibliography	'Public' International Law textbook: Benedetto Conforti, Diritto internazionale, ult. ed., Napoli, Editoriale Scientifica (with the exclusion of paras 16, 17, 41 e 51), or alternatively Natalino Ronzitti, Diritto internazionale, ult. ed., Torino, Giappichelli 'Private' International Law textbook: Gabiella Carella, Fondamenti di diritto internazionale privato, Torino, Giappichelli, 2019, or alternatively Ugo Villani, Diritto internazionale privato: profili generali, Napoli, ESI, 2019. For both parties, students are required to know the main relevant normative texts, which will be indicated in class and are widely and freely available online.
Notes
Teaching methods	The course is organized through lectures (with the help of a power point) and seminar activities, aimed at deepening specific topics, also with the participation of external teachers and through the use of official texts and documents. The International Law course includes a teaching module devoted to the history of European integration, which is part of the activities of the Jean Monnet Chair - HICOM 2018-2021 - Historical challenges and Politics of Memory of European integration. South Italy and the Mediterranean area.
Assessment methods	Oral exam.

Evaluation criteria	Knowledge and understanding Applying knowledge and understanding Autonomy of judgment Communicating knowledge and understanding Communication skills Capacities to continue learning.
Further information	